The “European Commentaries on Private International Law”, edited by Ulrich Magnus and Peter Mankowski, is truly European in nature and style. It offers most valuable guidance for lawyers, judges and academics throughout Europe. It is an indispensable working tool for everyone involved in this field of law.

The first volume of the series provides a topical, thorough and succinct in-depth analysis of the Brussels Ibis Regulation, which is to become by far the most prominent cornerstone of the European law of international civil procedure. Its imminence can be easily ascertained by every practitioner even remotely concerned with cross-border work in Europe. This commentary is the first full scale article-by-article commentary in English to address the Brussels Ibis Regulation – which of course covers the jurisprudence of the European Court of Justice in a comprehensive manner.
